1 (Court in Session)

2 THE CLERK: All rise. Court is in session. Please
3 be seated. Case number 13-53846, City of Detroit, Michigan.

4 MS. LENNOX: Good morning, Your Honor. Heather
5 Lennox of Jones, Day on behalf of the city.

6 I thought I would start this morning by reporting to Your 7 Honor that the UAW and AFSCME have informed the city that they
8 will each withdraw their objections to the plan confirmation
9 with prejudice as to the city only.

10 And the city will amend the plan of adjustment in the 11 Detroit general VEBA trust to add language to make clear that 12 the library retirees and six Cobo Hall retirees will be in the 13 general retiree VEBA.

14 Now we have negotiated the plan language with the library
15 and with the UAW and AFSCME, so we are all agreed on that. I
16 understand now that the retiree committee may have an issue
17 with some of this language but as to the city and the library
18 unions we are agreed.

19 THE COURT: Will there be a process to bring a final 20 conclusion to that?

21 MS. LENNOX: Well, we were certainly discussing that 22 issue before Court today and I don't -- I don't think the 23 language in the plan is going to change. That's what we've 24 negotiated. The issue is -- is frankly that is coming up is 25 an issue that is beyond the scope of the plan.

1 It involves what -- what benefits will be provided by the 2 VEBA trust and that is not something that the city decides.
3 So to me it's not a plan issue.

4 THE COURT: How many library employees are there?

5 MS. LENNOX: We -- we expect that there will be 6 about 330 or so library retirees that are in the VEBA and six
7 Cobo Hall retirees.

8 THE COURT: Who is here for the retiree committee?
9 I just have one question for you. Sir, for the record, sir --

10 MR. ALBERTS: Sam Alberts from Dentons.

11 THE COURT: Here's my question.

12 MR. ALBERTS: Yes.

13 THE COURT: Really?

14 MR. ALBERTS: Yes. And I'll -- and I'll --

15 THE COURT: Seriously?

16 MR. ALBERTS: Yes.

17 THE COURT: Three hundred and thirty-six employees
18 out of --

19 MR. ALBERTS: Yes.

20 THE COURT: -- 10,000?

21 MR. ALBERTS: Yes. May I explain?

22 THE COURT: I don't want an explanation, I want you
23 to resolve it.

24 MR. ALBERTS: Well, Your Honor, I actually offered

1 THE COURT: I want you to resolve it now, go resolve
2 it.

3 MR. ALBERTS: Your Honor, we tried this morning. We
4 have a mediation at 1:30. I would suggest that the parties
5 meet in mediation to try to resolve the issue.

6 THE COURT: Go resolve it. Okay. Okay. Anything
7 further before I give my decision regarding the AFSCME matter?

8 MS. LENNOX: No, Your Honor. That was the only
9 other matter on for this morning.

10 THE COURT: All right. May I have appearances
11 regarding the AFSCME matter?

12 MS. LENNOX: Heather Lennox for the city.

13 MR. MACK: Richard Mack, Your Honor, AFSCME.

14 THE COURT: This matter is before the Court on the 15 city's action to proof of claim number 2958 filed by AFSCME 25
16 and its affiliated locals.

17 The core of the dispute is whether the settlement entered
18 into between the city and AFSCME early in the case includes 19 AFSCME's thirteenth check claim and related claims and its 20 health care modification claim. The parties refer to this as 21 Line 7 and 17 on AFSCME's proof of claim.

22 AFSCME filed its proof of claim on February 21st, 2014 in 23 the total amount of over 8.7 billion dollars. This includes
24 several claims other than the two that are presently before

25 the Court. In April of 2014, AFSCME and the city reached a
13-53846-tjt Doc 8485-20 Filed 11/26/14 Entered 11/26/14 15:47:43 Page 5 of 13

1 settlement agreement.

2 On May 15, 2014 the city filed its fourth amended plan in
3 which it provides for the allowance of Class 11, the GRS
4 pension claims in the amount of $8,879,000,000 and the 5 allowance of Class 12, the OPEB claims in the amount of 6 $4,303,000,000.

7 The plan provides the definition of the GRS pension claim
8 as follows:

9 "Any claim (other than an OPEB claim), whether asserted
10 by current or former employees of the city, their heirs or 11 beneficiaries, or by the GRS, or any trustee thereof, or any 12 other entity acting on the GRS' behalf against the city, or 13 any fund managed by the city (including but not limited to the 14 general fund, the water fund, the sewage disposal fund, the 15 Detroit General Retirement System Service Corporation fund, or 16 the pension funds), based upon, arising under, or related to 17 any agreement, commitment, or other obligation whether 18 evidenced by contract, agreement, rule, regulation, ordinance,
19 or statute -- statute or law for A, any pension, disability,
20 or other post-retirement payment or distribution in respect of 21 the employment of current or former employees, or B, the 22 payment by the GRS to persons who may at any time participated
23 in, were beneficiaries of, or accrued post-retirement pension
24 or financial benefits under the GRS".

1 provides the definition of OPEB claims as:

2 "Any claim against the city for OPEB benefits held by a
3 retiree who retired on or before December 31, 2014 and is 4 otherwise eligible for OPEB benefits and any eligible
5 surviving beneficiaries of such retiree". This is at plan
6 Section (I)(A)255.

7 The plan further states at (I)(A)254:

8 "OPEB benefits means collectively post-retirement health,
9 vision, dental, life and death benefits provided to retired
10 employees of the city and their surviving beneficiaries
11 pursuant to employee health life -- health and life insurance
12 benefit plan, and employee's death benefits plan, including
13 the members of the certified class in the action captioned
14 Weiler, et al v City of Detroit, case number 06-619737-CK
15 (Wayne County Circuit Court), pursuant to the 'consent
16 judgment and order of dismissal' entered in that action on 17 August 26th, 2019".

18 The Bankruptcy Code defines a claim as:

19 "A, right to payment whether or not such right is reduced
20 to judgment, liquidated, unliquidated, fixed, contingent,
21 matured, unmatured, disputed, undisputed, legal, equitable,
22 secured or unsecured. Or B, right to an equitable remedy for 23 breach of performance if such breach gives rise to a right to 24 payment whether or not such right to an equitable remedy is

1 disputed, undisputed, secured, or unsecured". And that's in 2 11 USC Section 105(5).

3 The city asserts that pursuant to the plain language of 4 the plan, the pension claim in the claim at issue is included
5 in Class 11. Likewise the city argues that AFSCME's health
6 care modification claim in the proof of claim before the 7 Court, is included in Class 12.

8 AFSCME contends that both claims were intended to be in 9 Class 14 which is the class for unsecured claims. It asserts
10 that the language in the plan is at the very least ambiguous
11 and that the Court should consider the way the phrase GRS
12 pension claim is used throughout the plan and its context in 13 the plan.

14 AFSCME contends that the definition of pension claim is 15 intended to include only the claimant's rights to prospective
16 plan payments, rather than the credits and disbursements that 17 should have been made in the past that were covered in its 18 proof of claim.

19 Likewise with respect to the health care modification
20 claim, AFSCME asserts that it is not included in Class 12
21 because Class 12 deals exclusively with prospective payments
22 or distributions and is not intended to include past due
23 benefits.

24 In the Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors v Dow

1 Circuit, 2006, the Court stated:

2 "In interpreting a confirmed plan, Courts use contract
3 principals since the plan is effectively a new contract
4 between the debtor and its creditors".

5 Absent ambiguity the plan, "is to be enforced as written
6 unless -- I'm sorry, regardless of whether it is in line with 7 the parties' prior obligations". Id. The Court concludes 8 that the language of the plan is not ambiguous and that the 9 definitions of GRS claim and OPEB claim in the plan plainly
10 include the claims at issue here.

11 The Court finds that AFSCME's attempt to distinguish
12 between the claimant's rights to prospective payments, and the 13 rights to past due claims is not consistent with the broad 14 definitions of the claims in Classes 11 and 12, or with the 15 broad definition of a claim in the Bankruptcy Code.

16 By operation of Section 944(b) of the Bankruptcy Code,
17 the debts that AFSCME seeks to assert through these two claims 18 will be discharged. By operation of Section 944(a), the 19 city's only debts coming out of bankruptcy will be those set
20 forth in the confirmed plan if of course it is confirmed.

21 AFSCME relies in part upon the city's May 15, 2014
22 objection to its proof of claim in support of its argument
23 that the pension claim at issue here was not included in the 24 settlement. Specifically it asserts that the city's objection

1 Class 11 as the city now asserts.

2 It also argues that the Court should consider evidence
3 from the confidential mediations regarding the negotiations
4 that led to the settlement. The Court rejects this argument.

5 First, the Court finds that the city did raise this issue
6 in Paragraph 19 of its objection. Second, and more important,
7 in Shachachner v Blue Cross and Blue Shield of Ohio, 77 F 3d
8 889, 6th Circuit 1996.

9 The 6th Circuit held that extrinsic evidence of contract
10 intent is admissible only if the contract is ambiguous on its 11 face. Meaning that it is subject to -- to two reasonable
12 interpretations.

13 And the Court further held that extrinsic evidence cannot 14 be used to create an ambiguity. Further, the mere fact that 15 the parties argue two different interpretations is not 16 sufficient to establish that the contract is ambiguous.

17 As found earlier, the Court finds no ambiguity here.
18 Accordingly, the task before the Court is only to determine
19 the intent of the plan from its language and to apply it.

20 AFSCME also relies on its proof of claim as classifying
21 these pensions -- pension and health care claims in Class 14.
22 However, under Section 941 only the city can propose a plan
23 and under Section 1123(a)(1), only the plan can classify
24 claims.

1 classification of claims and not AFSCME's proof of claim. The
2 Court will enter an appropriate order. Is there anything else
3 on our agenda for today?

4 MS. LENNOX: No, Your Honor.

5 THE COURT: All right. I'd like to review with you
6 the balance of our schedule here. What does the city foresee
7 for tomorrow, please?

8 MS. LENNOX: My understanding for tomorrow, Your 9 Honor, is that we will introduce -- I'm not sure if we've 10 confirmed whether it's three or four witnesses, but we'll have 11 obviously just the witnesses required to substantiate the FGIC
12 settlement that we announced in Court last week. And we would 13 expect that, I would think not to take much time at all.

14 THE COURT: Okay. All right. And then Wednesday we 15 will take the testimony of Ms. Kopacz.

16 MS. LENNOX: Uh-huh.

17 THE COURT: And then if it's okay with everyone we 18 will have closing arguments a week from today at 8:30. I
19 assume that will be arguments on behalf of the city plan
20 supporters and whatever pro se objectors the Court concludes 21 should be given an opportunity for closing argument.

22 And then the Court will foresee giving an oral decision
23 on the record here in open Court, one second, I don't want to 24 pin myself down exactly at this point in time, but sometime

1 that schedule?

2 MS. LENNOX: No, Your Honor.

3 THE COURT: Okay. If there is nothing further,
4 we'll be in recess for today.

5 THE CLERK: All rise.

6 MR. ALBERTS: Your Honor, is it 8:30 on Wednesday?

7 THE COURT: Yes, 8:30 Wednesday, please.

8 MR. ALBERTS: Thank you.

9 THE COURT: So 9:00 tomorrow, 8:30 Wednesday. No,
10 what? What? Well, if it won't take very long, can we start
11 at 9:00 instead of 8:30?

12 MS. LENNOX: That's fine, Your Honor.

13 MR. ALBERTS: Sure. So 9:00 tomorrow, 9:00
14 Wednesday.

15 THE COURT: No. I don't know how long Ms. Kopacz is 16 going to take, so I want to start at 8:30 on Wednesday.

17 MR. ALBERTS: Okay. 9:00.

18 THE COURT: 9:00 tomorrow.

19 MR. ALBERTS: That's perfect, Your Honor.

20 THE COURT: All right.

21 THE CLERK: Court is adjourned.
